

List of trading venues and CCPs benefiting from a transitional exemption from the access provisions under Article 54(2) of MiFIR

Articles 35 and 36 of MiFIR (“the access provisions”) establish the legal framework for trading venues to access central counterparties (CCPs), and for CCPs to access trading venues.

In this respect, Article 54(2) of MiFIR provides that, in certain circumstances, a CCP or a trading venue may, before 3 January 2018, apply to its competent authority for permission to avail itself of transitional arrangements. The competent authority may decide that the access provisions would not apply to the relevant CCP or trading venue in respect of exchange-traded derivatives, for a transitional period until 3 July 2020.

On 3 July 2020, a notice of information<sup>1</sup> made market participants aware that the co-legislators agreed to extend the transitional arrangements in Article 54(2) concerning Articles 35 or 36 of MiFIR until 3 July 2021, due to the high degree of uncertainty and volatility driven by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Where such a transitional period is approved, the CCP or trading venue cannot benefit from the access rights under Article 35 or 36 of MiFIR, as regards exchange-traded derivatives for the duration of that transitional period.

A similar possibility for a transitional exemption from the application of the access provisions is also available to CCPs and trading venues, under certain conditions, under Article 35(5) of MiFIR (for CCPs) and Article 36(5) of MiFIR (for trading venues). As required by MiFIR, ESMA has published the list of trading venues, which have notified a temporarily opt-out from the access provisions under Article 36(5) thereof<sup>2</sup>.

For transparency purposes only, ESMA is also publishing below the list of all EU CCPs and trading venues which have been temporarily exempted from the access provisions under Article 54(2) of MiFIR. This publication is based on the notifications made to ESMA by the national competent authorities (NCAs) of the entities listed below. ESMA is not in the position to provide any representation or warranty on the accuracy of the information below.
